GG, your Mastermind.com AI assistant, can help you take your learning even further. Copy a prompt from this guide (look for the highlighted text) and paste it into a new conversation with GG.

- Customize the copy within [brackets] for your specific needs.
- If the prompts are numbered, add each subsequent prompt into the SAME conversation, rather than starting a NEW conversation. (This is called “prompt stacking,” and it will generate more relevant results that build on each other.)

Exercise: Creating a Facebook Post for Your Audience

GG Prompt (copy and paste each of the following prompts into a conversation with GG):

1. I am a [course creator] who [helps women reset their hormones after menopause naturally]. I want to create a Facebook post [explaining the three inflammatory foods affecting your hormones]. Can you write a Facebook post on this topic and suggest [five] headlines?

2. Can you suggest images to accompany this post?

3. Can you suggest [six] hashtags to use on this post?

4. Can you turn this into a [30-second] video script?

Hint: Breaking your conversation into steps means you can easily make adjustments along the way.
